The Regal and Jordan Courts will be re-opening in January 2020 to the community and private bookings.

Partnerships

Currently Regal basketball is going through a partnership review process looking at all our current basketball partners. During this process gaps in provision have been identified. This includes school provision and inclusive basketball.

From these findings Safehaven (inclusive basketball) and The Right Development foundation have been identified as potential partners to add value to our existing partnership model.

In early 2020 BPT's basketball programme Regal Basketball is reviewing its strategy to maximise the wider impact basketball can have on key issues facing the wider community.

If you have any questions regarding basketball delivery please contact BPT Community Manager, Jason Henley via email – jason@blackprincetrust.org.uk and follow @regalbasketbal on Instagram and twitter for daily updates on everything basketball here at The Hub.

BPT & Regal Basketball on BBC News

As some of you will have seen, BPT featured on BBC News on Wednesday 4th December. This was to inspire local school pupils from London Nautical School with the story of Darren Edozie (pro player for Bristol Flyers in the UK top flight basketball league) and his personal journey with homelessness, abandonment and adversity.

Christmas cheer for Safehaven basketball

Regal Basketball linked two of our partners together to bring a little Christmas cheer. On Monday 16th December

London Lions players Justin Robinson and Sam Toluwase surprised Safehaven basketball members at their Christmas session and awards evening. Justin and Sam spent time with the players taking part in a basketball skills session and leading a team each in the final game.

Community Activity – General

Losing Control of Community Centre Safari – Social Change Agency

On Tuesday 3rd December BPT hosted its first losing control safari in partnership with the Social Change Agency. The one-day event saw like-minded managers of community-based hubs and centres from across the UK (IOW, Bristol) come together at BPT to share challenges and good practice around community-based facilities. The day was a great opportunity to showcase BPT, the work we are doing under the partnership model and to share best practice.

Christmas Community Lunch

On Thursday 19th December BPT is partnering with the Duchy Arms and Progress to host a community Christmas lunch. The lunch will bring together all members of the community to encourage meeting new people and an overall celebration of community.

The hope is that this event will bring in new members of the community that have not engaged in BPT activity and showcase the physical activity session we deliver from The Hub.
